

The Jade Jacket is a wonderfully easy design that has only four pattern pieces, but so many options! Choose from a bolero length, fingertip, or knee length. No facings or interfacing are needed to make this jacket.

The bolero version is very simply lined while the longer lengths are unlined, making for a lightweight versatile garment.

Instructions are given for adding a simple collar, back ruffle, layering the lower jacket, cuffs, and appliqué detail with felt pieces.

The style lines for the jacket are very simple and comfortable with dolman sleeves and a lightly gathered lower jacket. It is so fast and easy, you'll find yourself making more than one!
