

Erin is a classic sleeveless shirtdress with princess seaming, a slightly raised waistline for a flattering fit, and subtle gathering at the center front and back skirts. The armholes and hemline are finished with a narrow bias strip that can blend or contrast the main dress fabric.

Design options include a narrow stand-up collar or plain neckline finish, ruffle detail over the shoulder at the side front/back seams, tie belt, and a button or snap center front closure.

This design is perfect for border prints as well as a collection of your favorite fabrics.
